In honor of Black History Month, and at the request of our parishioners and community members, St Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church will be holding a series of presentations and panel discussions addressing racial justice. The events are an opportunity to learn more about each topic and pose questions to panelists and presenters. Please join us for these special presentations.

Sunday, Feb 6, 2 pm-3:30 pm: Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion: What is it and what does it mean to your community?

A presentation by Sara Scott, Executive Director, Center for Legal Inclusiveness.

Saturday, Feb 12, 3 pm-4:30 pm: Racism from Your Point of View – An Open Conversation from Multiple Cultures

A panel discussion featuring panelists from diverse backgrounds.

Saturday, Feb 19, 3 pm-4:30 pm: Critical Race Theory Without the Politics, What it is and What it is not

A presentation by The Hon. Russell Carparelli, former Colorado Appeals Court Justice.

Sunday, Feb 27, 2 pm-3:30 pm: Moving Forward: The Role of Religious Communities in Embracing the Past and Planning the Future

A panel discussion featuring religious leaders of different faiths.

Proof of vaccination or a negative Covid test within 72hrs of the event are required for attendance. All attendees must wear a mask.

The events will take place at St Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church (2301 York St, Denver, CO 80205) and will be livestreamed on Facebook.com/loyoladenver. (Events may be held virtually due to Covid spread and restrictions. Please visit loyoladenver.org for updates on whether the events are in-person or virtual.)
