IGNATIAN YEAR
CALL TO THE UNIVERSAL APOSTOLIC PREFERENCES
SPEAKER SERIES – SPRING 2022
These events will meet by Zoom
Please register and updates will be sent.
Questions can be directed to: jesuitmissionslu.edu
Register at: https://bit.ly/3GtXfAb

To accompany young people in the creation of a hope-filled future
Friday, February 4th via Zoom at noon
Debra Lohe, PhD, Associate Provost
Dr. Lohe is an Associate Provost and has served as the Director of the Paul C. Reinert, SJ Center for Transformative Teaching, and Interim VP of Student Development. She is recognized for her dedication to the care of students ensuring their academic experience reflects the Ignatian Jesuit characteristic of Cura Personalis, "care of the whole person", mind, body and spirit.

To walk with the poor, the outcasts of the world, those whose dignity has been violated, in a mission of reconciliation and justice
Friday, March 4 via zoom at noon
Fr. Louie Hotop, SJ
Ministering at the U.S. boarder serving the Diocese of Brownsville, Texas, responding to pastoral needs in the area, with particular focus on the migrant community.
Fr. Brian Strassburger, SJ

Working together to care for the earth, our common home
Friday, April 1 via zoom at noon
Renewing the Earth: Living Laudato Sí in the year of Ignatius
Saint Louis University's Laudato Sí Initiative
Benjamin De Foy, PhD
Professor of Earth and Atmospheric Sciences
Matthew Baugh, SJ
Director, Catholic Studies
Christy Hicks- Aydt, Campus Minister

To show the way to God through the Spiritual Exercises and Discernment
Friday, May 13 via zoom at noon
Ignatian Spirituality in the Spiritual Exercises
Fr. Kevin Burke, SJ, Vice President for Mission at Regis University